

RULE NO. 7INFORMATION AVAILABLE TO THE PUBLIC

A. General Information

The Utility will maintain on file at each of its offices at which an agent is employed (except agents maintained for collection only) all of its rules, regulations and schedules of rates applying at such office or district and will also maintain on file at its principal place of business all of its rules, regulations and schedules of rates. All rules, regulations and schedules of rates will be kept available for public inspection or examination at all reasonable times.

B. Gas Consumption

The Customer may for good cause and upon reasonable notice request a statement of the most recent past reading of the meter or meters serving the Customer's then occupied premises for a period of not more than two (2) years.

C. Optional Rates

When two or more rate schedules are applicable to the same class of service, the Utility is responsible for informing the customer when he is eligible for a more beneficial rate.

D. New or Revised Rates

In the event of the adoption by the Utility of new or optional schedule of rates, the Utility will take such measures as may be practicable to advise those of its Customers who may be affected that such new or optional rates are effective, as set forth in the particular schedules.

E. Change of Rate Schedule by Customer

Should a Customer be eligible and elect to take service under a different applicable rate schedule, the change will become effective after the regular meter reading next following the date of such request. The Utility may refuse to permit such a change unless service has been taken under the current rate schedule for a period of not less than twelve (12) months, except such change will be permitted when an applicable new or revised rate schedule is first put into effect or the Customer's operations have changed as to justify immediate transfer to a different schedule.
